Hey [REDACTED],

IA

[REDACTED] sent round another email saying:

If depts need to send round business critical IC because of the direct impact that the strikes are going to have on them, then that is fine. It just needs to be completely factual and written with a view to it being leaked.

So we are going to go ahead with both the call and the newsletter. This went to [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] too so defra are aware of this.

EDI Networks

The EDI network comms intro is a call that happens weekly, hosted by EDI, and the networks are invited to attend to discuss any upcoming comms. Usually this is then triaged by EDI and fed back to me in my bi-weekly comms catchup with the EDI team. I'm not invited to the call usually.

However, after that week of 5 awareness activities I've asked to come along and meet the networks so they can put a face to my name and know who to contact next time, so it doesn't feel as last minute. It's not because of SEEN, more planning around how we handle EDI requests going forward into the new year.

Thank you,

[REDACTED]

Morning [REDACTED],

Thanks very much for the update – it may be in my emails but any update on the halt on IA comms or the consultation on any comms proposed with Defra? It may well be in my email so apols if it is! Looks like the below things are back to how they were?

Please can you give me a little more info on the EDI network comms intos – does that link to SEEN in any way or the opposite, doesn't include them?

Thanks
