Good morning!
There is a Yammer moderation meeting happening today at 10:30 to discuss these points and how to approach them. I will update you as soon as I am off or that

- For now I think it's important to:
- 1) listen to people's very real fears and struggles (We must remember that there has always been a on both sides on all sides of the issues.)
  - 2) offer reassurance that we as a team to log the situation closely and have to support. I am very happy to talk to any EA staff members affected.
  - 3) note that HR and EA HR teams and senior leaders are engaging with members of the new SEEN to work. Although the SEEN supports gender critical perspective and they have a pre- and measures that they do not wish to cause distress to those colleagues or their allies and has a been open to discuss on how to a good impacting negatively on others.

Speak soon

Hi team

[REDACTED] has formed the scheduled yammer thread related to the SEEN network which you may be aware.

I am not sure whether [REDACTED] is an ex or older DEFTA employee but I do understand her perspective. As you are all closer to him than I am but I welcome your advice on handling and whether making a personal approach or a response reinforcing our commitment to inclusion and respect.
